Mother's Day Menu

Sunday 18th March 2012

Starters

Cheshire leek and 'potato gratin' soup, with a light goats' cheese mousse and vegetable sprinkles

A Lancashire shellfish tian (posh prawn and crab cocktail!), with wholemeal toast

Pressed duck terrine, with shallots, mushrooms and bacon – served with 'Andston' pickle
(our Head Chef is called Andy, boom boom) and doorstep crostini

Caramelised spring vegetable tart with a [sensational] Stilton vinaigrette

Home smoked chicken and English rarebit 'sandwich'

Mains

Roast topside of Welsh beef, with Yorkshire pudding, roasted potatoes and red wine gravy

Roast leg of Welsh lamb, with roasted potatoes and minted gravy

Slow roast pork, with a Kentish apple tartlet, colcannon mash and proper Sunday gravy

Seared fillet of Scottish salmon, with buttery fondant potatoes, wilted spinach and a lemon and dill butter sauce

'Three Star Napoleon' – a really special vegetable and chèvre three layer mille-feuille

Puddings

The Red House twist on the super-chocolate, super-Viennese Sachertorte

Strawberry Pavlova with hot chocolate sauce

Trinity College Burnt Cream (crème brûlée to the rest of us), with handcrafted shortbread

Apple pie and custard – a classic

Layered (and light and fluffy) lemon and raspberry mousse, with sugared lemon zest
